LETTER

Hi,

I'd like to introduce you to Humanne, one of the artists on the Blackline Bookings roster.

He's a DJ and producer from Almería with a sound built on punchy percussion, raw analog synths and characterful vocals, moving between techno, tech house and minimal. After playing clubs such as Metro Dance Club, Moss and Palosanto, he moved to Manchester in 2019, launched his own brand, Inhuman Concept, and sold out its debut at Stage & Radio.

Now back in Spain, he has released on Cocoa, Mushroom Smile, Sonoro and Tanta, with support from PAWSA, Marco Carola, Paco Osuna and Jamie Jones. This September he landed the Legacy EP on Deeper Than Necessary, and in 2025 he started his own label, Manne Records.

If Humanne could be a fit for your club, festival or event, I'd love to talk it through. Just drop me a line whenever suits you.

All the best,

Arturo Jornet

02 — BIOGRAPHY

HUMANNE, A GROOVE BUILT IN THE SOUTH

Born in Almería (1994), Humanne is a DJ and producer whose signature sound blends punchy percussion, raw analog synths, and characterful vocals across techno, tech house, and curated minimal. After starting production in 2012, he debuted behind the decks in 2017, earning key slots at iconic venues like Metro Dance Club, Moss Club, and Manchester's Stage & Radio, where he launched his sold-out event series 'Inhuman Concept'. His discography includes releases on respected labels such as Nopreset, Micro Records, Cocoa, and T4 Label, drawing support from industry heavyweights including PAWSA, Marco Carola, Paco Osuna, and Jamie Jones. In 2025, he founded Manne Records, a dedicated platform showcasing refined, cutting-edge underground electronic music.

> "Very marked and forceful rhythms, looking for a unique and percussive groove in all his productions."
